Jesus

He's the Rock of Ages, the Gentle Shepherd, the Lily of the Valley, the Great Physician and the I Am. People of every kindred, nation, tribe and language worship Him. Jesus lived only 33 ½ years on this earth, travelled only a short distance, never was married, owned property, ran a business or wrote a book. His own people rejected who He said He was. He was crucified for His goodness. Multitudes have laid down their lives for Him rather than denounce His good name. He loves those who despise Him and promises to come again to take His people home. In this modern world Jesus is mocked, His name used as a curse word, but the most hurtful cut is that His life and ministry is ignored as irrelevant. His followers continue to be persecuted all over the globe. No politician, no king, nor ruler, no organization or country combined altogether has had as much influence on the world as this solitary man. In the end even the wicked will bow down in reverence admitting Jesus Christ is the Son of God. If the Old Testament was all you had as a Bible, it would tell you that a Savior of the world would come and would destroy Satan (Genesis 3:15); He would live a perfect life in human flesh (2 Samuel 7:14-16); Jesus would have His hands and feet pierced while His Father forsook His Son who had become sin for us (Psalm 22); and that this Man would go into the belly of death and three days later rise up from the grave (Jonah 2). It would tell you so much more, as the entire life of Christ is in prophetic form. One evangelist said it best, "Put me down anywhere in the Old Testament and it will lead me to the cross."

Salvation

Plain and simple – salvation is a free gift from God. The question then becomes how do we achieve salvation, or the state of being saved by God? Embedded into our fallen human natures is the idea that somehow we must earn salvation. Heathen cultures have been trying to appease God or somehow alter His anger toward us since the beginning of time. Vain efforts ranging from human sacrifices to worthy works appear throughout history. Vain sacrifices appear regularly in modern times and in a variety of subtle ways. Accepting God into our hearts often comes with a tag that my decision to follow God earns His favor. Salvation is viewed as being dependent upon the strength of my faith at any given moment. When we acknowledge we were not there and had no part in Adam’s sin which plunged the world into a lost state, only then can we realize the extremely good news that we were not there and had no part in the saving work of Jesus Christ, known as the second Adam. What Adam did affects the entire world therefore what Jesus did also affects the whole world, only much more. Viewed in proper context, salvation is God’s historical gift to humanity. Salvation then becomes a matter of belief as opposed to performance. It gives new meaning to John 3:16, “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son.” And He gave it to the world and we had no part in this free gift. If you were to gather together everything that is good, noble and lovely in man, and present the subject to the angels of God as acting a part in salvation of the human soul, the proposition would be regarded as treason. Some suppose there is value in repentance to buy forgiveness. And there is danger in regarding placing merit on faith. The righteousness of Christ is our only hope for eternity.

Creation

To believe God created the world is to believe the literal Biblical account. Although Darwin's Theory of Evolution prevails in the secular classroom and in the scientist's laboratory, the Creation story from Scripture is still the most popular theory in the world. Every people group has a tradition of a greater power creating the earth and everyone in it. To believe we evolved from a monkey is to completely destroy one's self-esteem and perhaps is the biggest reason why so many people have no respect for themselves or for society in general. Man nor devil has been able to create the spark of life. Our bodies are fearfully and wonderfully made (Ps 139:14). As time marches on and scientific explorers discover more and more the miraculous intricacies of life, it's obvious this is an endless learning curve with no end even into eternity. To chalk up miraculous creations to chance is a thinly veiled attempt to say, "No God will rule over my life." While men race themselves into oblivion through over indulgence of work and aspiring, God has set aside a perfect plan whereby He gives to man a rest day in which to contemplate the intricacies of His creation. Not only is God the author of creation of the planetary worlds, but He is also in charge of recreating us into new creations. In the end we are deemed to be the greatest of all creation for God has made us into His own image. (Genesis chapter 1, verse 27) At the close of time, the Creation story will be front and center in regards to the Beast, the 666 and the Anti-Christ. The Bible says "Choose you this day whom ye will serve; but as for me and my house we will serve the Lord." (Joshua 24:15) Will we worship the God who set apart and made holy one day per week to honor His Creation? Or will we choose to follow a false god who has declared they have the authority to change God's Eden command to worship on a day which honors them?

Question – Who created the world?

Answer – Genesis chapter 1, verse 1; Genesis chapter 1, verse 2; Colossians chapter 1, verses 13-17

Question– Over how long a period of time was the earth created?

Answer – Genesis chapter 2, verse 2

Question– Did God establish a memorial to honor creation?

Answer – Genesis chapter 2, verse 3; Revelation chapter 14, verse 7; Exodus chapter 20, verses 9-11

Question– What about those who destroy creation for gain?

Answer – Revelation chapter 11, verse 18

Question – How long will God’s beautiful creation last?

Answer – 2 Peter chapter 3, verses 6-7; Matthew chapter 24, verses 35-39

Why Does God Permit Suffering?

The patriarch Job was a wealthy man of the East. One day when the representatives of all God's created planets met, Satan came representing planet earth. Satan declared the earth was his and every sinner in it followed him. God asked Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is none like him, a perfect and upright man." Satan challenged God by saying, "You have always put a wall of protection around him ... but take away everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your face." (Job 1: 6-12) God risked His reputation by putting faith in Job and it paid off. After Job had lost his wealth, his children and his health, his own wife said, "Are you still trying to maintain your integrity? Curse God and die." (Job 2:9) Job answered his critics with these words: "The Lord gave me what I had and the Lord has taken it away. Praise the name of the Lord!" The Bible simply records Job's story this way: "In all of this, Job did not sin by blaming God." (Job 1: 21-22) The world is full of Job's and the great controversy of Satan cursing mankind continues on. When suffering and calamity come, the universes are watching and waiting for your response. Will it be to curse God and turn your back upon Him for something the Devil is responsible for? Or will you be operating in the spirit of Job, praising God no matter whatever befalls you. Think of the world's largest boomerang and Satan throws it from a place of godness and happiness into the abyss of evil and despair. Slowly that boomerang is making its way back to the place of godness, happiness and unexpected blessings after passing through tragedy. And think of Jesus, the perfect man who did no wrong but became sin to save us.

Question – What does God promise in regards to suffering and tragedy if we will just remain faithful?

Answer – Romans 8:28

Question – How many is God willing to let perish in the trials of life?

Answer – 2 Peter 3:9

Question – Where is Satan at during these last hours of earth's history?

Answer – 1 Peter 5:8

Question – What do you get out of reading this Psalm of protection?

Answer – Psalm 91

Question – What if the struggle gets so great that I cannot handle it?

Answer – 1 Corinthians 10:13

Health Message

The Bible says, “Deep calls unto deep.” (Psalm 42:7) No matter your IQ level, the Bible is a greater challenge to the intellect than any other source on earth. In order to understand what God is speaking to you, it would be wise to be as mentally alert as possible. Mankind, with the commercial help of media, is only interested in moving product, regardless whether that product is harmful to your mind, body and spirit. God has given ample instructions on how to live a holy, healthy lifestyle. If simple sanitation rules God gave to the million + Israelites coming out of Egypt and into the desert had been followed during the Middle Ages, there would have been no devastating plagues. If doctors in the 18th Century would have followed Biblical instruction on washing and cleanliness, the surgical practice could have spared countless lives. If Biblical instruction on eating certain foods would be followed today, would we be weighed down with various pestilences (wicked viruses, Strong’s Concordance) that Jesus foretold would be a sign of the last days? (Matthew 24:7, Psalms 91:3) One thing is certain – you will rarely, if ever, meet someone who will admit to eating or living unhealthy. Yet, the diseases which ravage North America are lifestyle related. You don’t see cancers, heart disease, diabetes and arthritis in the poorer nations suffering from a lack of food. Trying to inform someone of a better way is like striking a raw nerve. Forget smoking and drinking, we need a true dietary revival. God never called certain animals food but an abomination. God’s plan is not to have a generation of healthy sinners wandering around, but to prepare His people for the intensity of the last days coming upon us. Forget what man says, its high time to see what the Bible says about health.

Question – What was the original diet God gave to mankind, and will be the diet in the earth made new?

Answer – Genesis, chapter 1, verses 29-30

Question – What universal dietary laws did God give to the non-Jew, Noah just prior to the flood?

Answer – Genesis, chapter 7, verses 1-2

Question –What was the meaning of the vision God gave to Peter regarding animals deemed an abomination?

Answer – Acts, chapter 10, verses 10-28

Question– How did Isaiah describe the vision of the Second Coming of Jesus in regards to eating unclean foods?

Answer – Isaiah, chapter 66, verses 15-17

Question – How does Solomon (the wisest man and forefather of Jesus) describe alcohol?

Answer – Proverbs, chapter 20, verse 1; chapter 23, verse 31; chapter 31, verse 4

The Cross of Christ

The cross of Christ is not a popular subject. To some it is a stumbling block, to others it is foolishness (1 Cor 1:24), while many deny this dividing point of history to suit their needs. Historians conclude that a man called Jesus was crucified on a cross (Roman method of execution) and died that same day. The Romans put Christ to death after a sham trial in which a zealot was set free in His place. Unbelieving Jews were the driving force behind His death. However, there were Romans and Jews alike who believed in Jesus at the cross. He was crucified on a Friday, buried that evening, rested in the tomb on Sabbath, and raised from the grave on Sunday. Unlike other victims of crucifixion, Jesus died quickly and of a broken heart rather than by His wounds. He was mocked by the multitude until His dying breath. The time of His death was prophesied hundreds of years before right down to the Passover weekend. It was foretold Jesus would be sold by a friend for 30 pieces of silver, His garments would be gambled over and that a sword would pierce His flesh. It was foretold that He would be forsaken by His Father in heaven and would die this cruel death alone. The Bible speaks of two deaths, the first being our normal demise into the grave, and the second of which there is no return from the darkness. This is the hopeless death Jesus chose to endure for us. Before Calvary, Jesus prophesied to the Jews He would rise again after three days. On the cross He could not see past the portals of the tomb. He was willing to say goodbye to life forever in order to save us.

Question – Did God the Father abandon His Son on the cross?

Answer – Isaiah chapter 53; Isaiah 54:7

Question – Why did the Father have to separate Himself from His Son? Answer

– Answer – 2 Corinthians, chapter 5, verse 21

Question – How bad was the internal struggle Christ suffered at Calvary?

Answer – Psalm, chapter 22, verses 1-22

Question – What was Jesus' response to the mockers and unbelievers?

Answer – Luke, chapter 23, verse 34

The Resurrection

Resurrection ranks with the Incarnation and the Second Coming as the greatest events in the history of mankind. It is what gives man hope to cope with the loss of a loved one. The prophet Jonah was a type of Christ in that he volunteered to be cast into death, died in the belly of the great fish for parts of three days and was resurrected onto the shoreline of life. (Jonah 1, 2) The Bible goes to great lengths to state without the Resurrection of Jesus then our faith is in vain. (1 Corinthians 15: 12-23) Christ's rising from the tomb turned Disciples into Apostles, from timid, self-serving and fearful to serving mankind with holy boldness. Resurrection gives men power to march faithfully to the burning stake with the assurance of a better life beyond. Resurrection helps mankind to encompass the extreme shortness of life on this earth, threescore and ten if we be so fortunate, and supplies a new mission in life. It gives us the faith to forsake worldly fame and fortune now in exchange for eternal happiness shortly to come. Christianity is the only world religion that presents an empty tomb. All the Godhead was involved in the Resurrection of Jesus (Romans 8:11, Acts 2:32, John 2:19) Death is the great enemy of mankind and the world is more fearful of it than any other matter. Christians rejoice this greatest foe death is vanquished and defeated for "Whosoever believes in Jesus should not perish but have everlasting life." (John 3:16) and we humbly cry out, "O death where is thy sting?" (1 Corinthians 15:55) The Resurrection of Jesus is so much more than an annual Easter celebration, our daily lives either live by it or deny it. In a dark and gloomy world full of death, terminal sickness, the senseless atrocities of war, terrorism, accidents and calamities - it is the Resurrection of Christ which gives mankind the hope to carry on.

Question - Who does the Bible say has the power over death?

Answer - Hebrews chapter 2, verse 14

Question- What is it that brings forth death?

Answer - James chapter 1, verses 14-15

Question- Who is it that loves living a life of death?

Answer - Proverbs chapter 8, verses 35-36

Question- Who is it that loves living a life of resurrection?

Answer - John, chapter 5, verse 24; Ephesians, chapter 2, verses 5-6; Romans 8, verses 1-6

2nd Coming of Christ

The promised return of Jesus is the most anticipated event of the ages. Politicians won't acknowledge it, environmentalists don't recognize it, and non-believers simply scoff at the preposterous notion of it. It has been prophesied for centuries and a timeline has been given for the saints to know the season by signs and wonders occurring in and on the earth. It will be a tumultuous time and even heaven itself will go silent when Jesus rides in with thousands times thousands to fulfil this strange deed. The reward of the saints of God is contrasted with the destruction of the wicked. The Devil and his fallen band of angels will be terrified their prophesied end has finally arrived. Long and protracted centuries of the saints asking "Why O God hast Thou delayed Thy coming?" comes to a conclusion, for with the Lord "a thousand years is but a day." (Ps 90:4) The next era of moving on from 6000 years of sin will come. What a day of rejoicing that will be for all those who have longed to see this event take place. One preacher proclaims there are more verses in the New Testament regarding the Second Coming of Christ than on any other subject. As you talk to people it seems everyone is expecting something big to happen soon. When Christ ascended from earth the angels said, "Someday He will return the same way you saw Him go." (Acts 1:11) If the media tells you He is in Jerusalem healing the sick, do not believe it, for Jesus will not touch down on this earth at the Second Coming. This will be the great deception at the end when Satan personates Christ. (2 Corinthians 11:14-15)

Wholesome Life

Sanctification means to be set apart by God for holy living. Sanctification is the work of a lifetime. Over time a habitual pattern will emerge insomuch as it will not be the occasional misdeed that matters so much as the trend in your daily lifestyle. One Christian author put it this way: “I’m not where I want to be but thank God I’m not where I used to be.” The Lord will begin to examine your heart and motives and then begin to extract unholy practices from your life. There may be many layers to uncover but in God’s perfect timetable He will do a work in you that will astound friends and family. Many sins are not recognizable by yourself until the day the Lord convicts you that this problem area must be dealt with. Sanctification is not a pre-requisite for salvation, for the Bible says: “When we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son ...” (Romans 5:10) However, to be set apart for holy living is one of the great enjoyments of being a Christian. The benefits of living the sanctified life makes one happy and greatly satisfied that at long last my life is what it needs to be. The Christian lifestyle embraces conducting an about face from the way you used to live and having all our senses under control of the Holy Spirit. Without living a holy life your testimony and witness to others lacks converting power. Some have gotten so discouraged over their performance or lack of it, that it has driven them away totally discouraged from faith. They feel unworthy to even attend church and they become separated from the Bible counsel to “not forsake the assembling of ourselves together.” (Hebrews 10:25) There is hope mingling with people of like struggles as yourself, to exhort, counsel and comfort one another.

Question – How do we know what constitutes unholy living?

Answer – 1 John, chapter 3, verse 4; Romans 7, chapter 7, verse 7

Question – How does the Bible describe our transformation?

Question– How do I receive this power to live a holy life?

Eternity

Some people are not interested in going to heaven because they think their friends will be living in hell. Others, after experiencing a busy, productful life on earth, can't envision themselves floating in the clouds and playing harps for eternity. So, what exactly is heaven and what will the lifestyle be like there?

Heaven for us begins with God's promise, "God will make a complete end; trouble will not rise up a second time." (Nahum 1:9) There will be no sin, no sorrow, sickness, sadness, disease, death or destruction. (Revelation 22:3) One of the great curses of this earth has been the inequality of wealth as the greed of the few oppresses the lack thereof of the masses. This all ends in heaven. (Isaiah 65:22) Say goodbye to violence in all its forms. (Isaiah 11:6) With the elimination of money there goes the root of all evil. The Bible speaks of other inhabited worlds so how does interplanetary travel sound to those who love to explore? Multitudes from other planets will journey to heaven to speak to the redeemed first hand and learn what it was like to follow Jesus on planet earth. (1 Peter 1:12) As well as making new friends there is the joy and comfort of knowing your family, its history, its meaning has not been forgotten. "For as the new heavens and the new earth which I will make ... so shall your seed and your name remain." (Isaiah 66:22) And we know the weekly cycle shall remain, culminating with every 7th day as our special day of restful worship with our Creator. "From one sabbath to another shall all flesh come to worship before Me ..." (Isaiah 66:23) With family, friends, labor, travel, exploration, farming and building, heaven is anything but a boring place. Call it a destination. Put it on your bucket list of where you wish to end up.

Question – What does the Bible say happens to planet earth in regards to eternity?

Answer – Revelation 21:1

Question – What amazing moving event takes place in regards to God’s throne and planet earth?

Answer – Revelation 21: 2-3

Question – The Bible speaks of a specific time in heaven where all believers will get to open the books of heaven and review the history of our world, to see behind the scenes, and to declare in the end that God is love. How long is this special time?

Answer – Revelation 20:4

Question – After seeing the ravages that Satan engineered upon humanity for over 6000 years, what privilege will the saints of God have in the end?

What Happens to the Devil

How did Satan get to this world to begin with? The Devil is a created being, only he wasn't created a devil, he was created Lucifer, a perfect, loyal angel and rose to the ranks of being second in command under Jesus. In 2 prophetic, marvelous chapters of the Bible (Isaiah 14 and Ezekiel 28) God uses the description of an earthly king and likens it to the story of fallen Lucifer. In a perfect eternity it was not enough for Lucifer to be under the command of God and His Son Jesus, he endeavored to become God. Lucifer's persuasiveness convinced 1/3 of all holy angels (Rev 12:4) to follow his rebellion. The Bible speaks of 10,000 x 10,000 faithful angels, which is a number too large for the human mind to contemplate, so you can image 1/3 of that number departing heaven for planet earth. Many believe Satan will live forever in charge of hell. Nothing could be farther from the truth and the Devil trembles and will do anything to delay his inevitable prophetic end. "So I brought fire out from within you, I reduced you to ashes on the ground ... Thou shalt be brought down to hell ... All who knew you are appalled at your fate ... Everyone there will stare at you and ask, Can this be the one who shook the earth and made the kingdoms of the world tremble? Is this the one who destroyed the world and made it into a wasteland? Is this who demolished the world's greatest cities and had no mercy? Like a corpse trampled underfoot, you will be dumped in a mass grave ... You have come to a terrible end, and you will exist no more." [Is 14 and Ez 28] For Satan to be in charge of an eternal prison called hellfire defies logic and Scripture for only those followers of Jesus are given eternal life.

Question – How does the Bible portray Satan’s dramatic banishment from heaven?

Answer – Revelation 12: 7-9

Question – How does Jesus describe Satan?

Answer – John 8:44

Question – What was Satan’s first great lie?
